Emma Harding is a dynamic speaker, voice coach, and advocate for authentic self-expression. With over 20 years in the music industry, she has coached speakers, voice actors, and platinum-selling artists, managed Rockit Vocal Studios, and hosted the internationally charting Rock Your Voice Podcast.

Emma has shared her expertise at events like PodSummit YYC, The Unstoppable Singer Summit and on CBC & BBC Radio. She has coached on projects like Jim Henson's Fraggle Rock: Back to the Rock, guest coaches and speaks at events for Country Music Alberta, CCMA's and Canada's Music Incubator. Emma is dedicated to empowering voices at every stage.

Her certifications in vocal health, mental health-informed practice, neuroscience and the voice, her studies at the London Music School and Berklee, reflect her commitment to technical excellence and well-being. Emma's mission is to inspire connection and confidence through the power of the voice.

Key Speaking Topics:

- The Value of Your Voice: Build confidence and revenue while connecting authentically with audiences. Ideal for speakers, podcast hosts, actors, and singers.
- Reveal Your Inner Rockstar: Harness your voice to elevate your career, create meaningful connections, and stand out.
- Keynote Concert: Combining speaking with song.

Emma Harding delivers a powerful blend of storytelling, voice coaching insight, and live original music—guiding audiences through the moments that shape how we show up, communicate, and lead.

Through a dynamic mix of speaking and song, audiences don't just learn about confidence and resilience—they experience it in real time.
